“The Grey Audit: A Field Assessment in Grey Literature”

Fifteenth International Conference on Grey Literature
The Grey Audit: A Field Assessment in Grey Literature
CVTI SR Bratislava, 2-3 December 2013

Moderator Day One

Jens Vigen, Head Librarian CERN

For over a decade, Jens has been deeply involved in developing digital library services. In parallel to developing new services for members of the particle physics community, he has a particular interest in redesigning business models in the digital era for purchasing of library materials. Recently, his activities have been strongly focused on establishing models for open access journal publishing. Before joining CERN, Jens held a position at the library of the Norwegian University of Science and Technology. In addition to his library qualifications he has a master degree in civil engineering, geodesy and photogrammetry.

Moderator Day Two

Debra Sava, Head NIS-IAEA

In this capacity, Debra is responsible for the International Nuclear Information System (INIS), the IAEA Library, and the IF support group. He holds a MPhil in library and information science from Loughborough University, UK, an MA in International Relations from the University of Belgrade, Serbia, as well as a Graduate Diploma in Public Administration, Concordia University, Montreal, Canada. Debra has extensive experience in the management and operations of web, library, information and knowledge management, as well as records management and archive services across various United Nations Agencies, including UNV, UNESCO, World Bank, ICAO, and the IAEA. His main interests are long-term sustainability of information services, democratization of scientific and technical information, and the practical application of information technologies.

GL15 Conference Outline

GL15 Participating Organizations

Grey Literature and Information Rights: On Law and Practice

This workshop is organized together with colleagues from Kent State University (USA), the University of Lille (France), and EBSCO (BeNeLux). It will take place as part of the KNVI (Royal Netherlands Association for Information Professionals) Annual Conference on November 14, 2013.

Grey Literature and Information Rights: On Law and Practice

Within grey literature resides a wide range of knowledge-based resources often unexploited and underestimated. A clearer understanding of the rights associated with this field of information will enable stakeholders to better understand the relevance and value of grey literature. This workshop will further guide information professionals in their tasks of informing policy and practice in the workplace.

Prof. Tomas Lipinski, Director of the School of Library and Information Sciences at Kent State University (Ohio, USA) will be joined by Dr. Joachim Schöpfel, Senior Lecturer in Library and Information Sciences at the University of Lille and Director of ANRT, National Digitization Centre for PhD Theses (France) in presenting on information rights. Rene Dailes of EBSCO will demonstrate the benefits of licensing grey literature and Dominic Farace, Director of GreyNet International will engage the workshop participants in the pre-launch of the GreyGuide Repository, an online guide to good practice in grey literature.

Grey Literature and Information Rights is geared to publishers, librarians, archivists, and other information professionals in government, academics, business and industry who are involved in the production and/or management of information resources.
