EBSCO sponsors the GL-Conference Series three years running 1

EBSCO Information Services is the world's most prolific aggregator of full text journals including The Grey Journal. In 2005, TextRelease entered into an electronic licensing relationship with EBSCO Publishing. The full text of articles in The Grey Journal (TGJ) can be found in Library, Information Science & Technology Abstracts (LISTA) full text database. EBSCO is a worldwide leader in providing information access and management solutions through print and electronic journal subscription services, research database development and production, as well as online access to more than 100 databases and thousands of e-journals, and e-commerce book procurement. EBSCO has served the library and business communities for more than 60 years. <http://www.ebsco.com>

Call-for-Papers, the R&D Trademark in Grey Literature 2

In addition to full-text Conference Papers, this year's Call-for-Papers also includes Poster Presentations & Product and Service Reviews. Participants who seek to present a paper at GL9 are invited to submit an English abstract between 400-500 words. The abstract should deal with the problem/goal, the research method/procedure, an indication of costs related to the project, as well as the anticipated results/conclusions of the research. Abstracts are the only tangible source, which will allow the Program Committee to guarantee content and balance in the plenary sessions. Every effort should be made to reflect the content of your work in the abstract submitted. The abstract must be emailed on or before May 1st 2007 in MS Word. The author will receive written verification upon its receipt. For further details: <http://www.textrelease.com/callforpapers.html>

GL9 Program Committee welcomes Members from Belgium and Germany 3

Annually, a core group of six delegates from Europe and the United States are joined by members from prominent organizations committed to the field of grey literature. This year the GL9 Program Committee welcomes two first time delegates from Belgium and Germany. <http://www.textrelease.com/gl9conference.html>
